HORROR MONTH

HORROR MONTH 2024: CHILLING, THRILLING TALES FOR HAUNTED READING!

Since the earliest times, people have told stories to each other around a fire or inside on a cold winter's night to frighten and thrill their audience. People love to be scared, whether it be a shared story, a movie, a book, or our own beloved comics and graphic novels. This month, we give in to the Horror and let it take the whole month! Monsters, Murderers, Ghouls, Ghosts, Zombies and Experiments Gone Awry, no thing or subject is out of the realm of horror, even a car or its loose tire! We're still a few months away from Halloween, but it's never too early to dive into some spooky reading or adding some monstrous goodies to your collector shelf. Right here on these very pages, our product experts have delved deep into the heart of Horror to find some of the best frights out there for our recommended reading list. But don't forget to look throughout this issue for the "Horror Month" icon for more tales to thrill and chill you!

ANANSI BOYS I #5

(W) Neil Gaiman, Marc Bernardin (A) Shawn Martinbrough (CA) David Mack
As Fat Charlie nurses an epic hangover, and deals with the mystery woman who shared his bed after the night of mournful reverie, Spider heads to the Grahame Coats Agency to fill in for his brother. There, Spider gets into the kind of trouble only a trickster scion could muster — trouble that poor Fat Charlie will have to deal with. (STL330232)

THE CARLYLE SCHOOL FOR KINGS #1

(W) Nelson Greaves (A/CA) Davide Castelluccio
Emmeline Heron is the daughter of traitors, but even she cannot be denied entrance to the Carlyle School for Kings. For thousands of years, the academy has opened its doors to the best and brightest young people in the Kingdom. There, they are trained in matters of heart, strength, and mind, and the one who is deemed most exceptional will be crowned king for the next thirty years, when the King Cycle repeats. This decree was enacted by Godwit himself, to ensure the King is one young enough that hope and idealism still thrive within them—but if they want hope and idealism, they invited the wrong girl. GILT FRAME #3

(W) Matt Kindt, Margie Kindt (A/CA) Matt Kindt

A classic whodunit murder mystery that spans the globe from Paris to Hawaii to Montenegro as we hustle to keep up with the most unlikely murder-solving duo in the history of murder-solvers. Can our unlikely detective duo solve the murder? Spoiler: Yes, they can. And do. Multiple times. But solving the murder is only half the battle. It's the motive for the murder that will be the heartbreaking twist and the reason why you'll want to go back and re-read the entire thing in a completely new light. This final chapter has it all. Murders (of course), the chaos performance artists, a dupe, a rube, a patsy, a hitman, a femme fatale, and even a homme fatale. Everything you want in a murder mystery plus one thing you didn't know you needed. (STL330249)

TEENAGE MUTANT NINJA TURTLES: MUTANT NATION #1

(W) Tom Waltz (A) Vincenzo Federici (CA) Javier Fernandez
New ongoing series! Part I of the Raphael flashback adventure arc "Attack on Area 51"! After the events of "The Armageddon Game," the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles found themselves at a crossroads, attempting to keep their family united while individually feeling the need to break away and explore life in a world that knows about mutants. To clear his head, Raphael jumps on his motorcycle and heads west on a solo road trip with the wind at his back and no destination in mind... until a dormant enemy out for revenge on the Turtles engineers a dangerous detour to Area 51. When Raphael is held hostage with some unexpected old friends, his soul-searching quest mutates into a crisis as he brawls in the desert to keep the E.P.F.'s cache of coveted technology out of the wrong hands. Will Raphael find his new purpose away from his brothers... or just more trouble than he can handle alone? (STL330632)

CORMAC MCCARTHY'S THE ROAD: A GRAPHIC NOVEL ADAPTATION HC

(W) Cormac McCarthy (A) Manu Larcenet

The story of a nameless father and son trying to survive with their humanity intact in a postapocalyptic wasteland where Earth's natural resources have been diminished, and some survivors are left to raise others for meat, The Road is one of Cormac McCarthy's bleakest and most prescient novels. This first official graphic novel adaptation of McCarthy's work is illustrated by acclaimed French cartoonist Manu Larcenet, who ably transforms the world depicted by McCarthy's spare and brutal prose into stark ink drawings that add an additional layer to this haunting tale of family love and human perseverance. Cormac McCarthy personally approved the making of this book before his death, and the adaptation bears the approval of the McCarthy estate. (STL328886) (C: 0-1-0) HC, 8x10, 160pgs, FC.....$26.99

(W) Tara Bennett (A) Ryan Meinerding

Marvel Studios' Head of Visual Development Ryan Meinerding has been a key creative force in designing the look of the beloved Super Heroes and villains of the Marvel Cinematic Universe since the early stages of Iron Man (2008). Marvel Studios: The Art of Ryan Meinerding showcases the artist's singular and iconic vision, from his work-in-progress sketches to his finished illustrations. Included are: character designs for Iron Man; keyframe and concept designs for Thor; concept designs for Captain America's many suits. Character designs for Marvel's The Avengers and Avengers: Age of Ultron, created in collaboration with Charlie Wen; suit and gear designs for Avengers: Endgame, Spider-Man: No Way Home, Black Panther: Wakanda Forever. This lavish book includes more than 500 illustrations and provides unprecedented insight into Meinerding's creative process and his view on the essential collaborations behind contemporary concept and character design. DRAFTED GN

(W/A) Rick Parker

Drafted is a graphic novel memoir by Rick Parker, a shy, inexperienced, and overly protected teenager who gets drafted into the United States Army at the height of the Vietnam War. The looming threat of deployment informs every aspect of his life, from the most ludicrous experiences to the grimmest tests of endurance. Initially determined to do his patriotic duty, Parker gradually comes to the realization that he is just not cut out for a military career and wants nothing more than to serve his time and return to civilian life to pursue his dream of becoming an artist. In telling this story, he shows how Vietnam was the last war in the United States that instituted the draft; how the draft affected those who served; and how we as Americans think of war and our soldiers once they return from service. Parker also shows how being an artist helped him to survive his time in the army. (STL328888) (C: 0-1-0) HC, 7x10, 256pgs, FC.....$24.99

CAPITAL THE IDEOLOGY: GRAPHIC NOVEL ADAPTATION SC

(W) Thomas Piketty, Claire Alet (A) Benjamin Adam

Thomas Piketty's powerful and bestselling Capital and Ideology is now available in this accessible and richly illustrated full-color graphic novel format. Praised by Piketty himself as a "magnificent adaptation" of his original book, this graphic novel adaptation is perfect for anyone looking to understand the wealth gap and why society is the way it is today. Claire Alet and Benjamin Adam make the original work's ideas more accessible through the addition of a family saga. Jules, the main character, is born at the end of the 19th century. He is a person of private means, a privileged figure representative of a profoundly unequal society obsessed with property. He, his family circle, and his descendants will experience the evolution of wealth and society. (STL328883) (C: 0-1-1) SC, 12x14, 176pgs, FC.....$22.99

FANTASTIC FOUR: FULL CIRCLE EXPANDED EDITION GN

(W/A/CA) Alex Ross

The critically acclaimed, award-winning national bestseller—the first original graphic novel on the Marvel Arts list—now in an oversized, deluxe expanded edition. This new edition has 288 additional pages of jaw-dropping bonus material from Ross (the original graphic novel was 64 pages), as he walks readers through his process and vision for the making of the book. School Library Journal called a “pop art masterpiece.” Showcasing early visual concepts through final art, Ross takes readers behind-the-scenes, revealing for the first time his proposal, thumbnails, sketches, inks, and color guides. The book also includes commentary from Ross as well as reprints of the classic Marvel comic from Stan Lee and Jack Kirby that inspired Fantastic Four: Full Circle—Fantastic Four no. 51—and the subsequent run of covers from 2023 which Alex Ross created for Marvel Comics, featuring the Fantastic Four in costumes designed for Fantastic Four: Full Circle. (W) Marjorie M. Liu (A/CA) Sana Takeda

2023 Eisner Award Winner for Best Graphic Album — New — and for Painter/Multimedia Artist (Interior art). Chinese American twins, Milly and Billy, are having a tough time. On top of the multiple failures in their personal and professional lives, they're struggling to keep their restaurant afloat. Luckily their parents, Ipo and Keon, are in town for their annual visit. Having immigrated from Hong Kong before the twins were born, Ipo and Keon have supported their children through thick and thin and are ready to lend a hand—but they're starting to wonder, has their support made Milly and Billy incapable of standing on their own? When Ipo forces them to help her clean up the house next door—a hellish and run-down ruin that was the scene of a grisly murder—the twins are in for a nasty surprise. A night of terror, gore, and supernatural mayhem reveals that there is much more to Ipo and her children than meets the eye. (STL301479) SC, 7x10, 208pgs, FC ..... $14.99

O/A THE NIGHT EATERS VOLUME 2: HER LITTLE REAPERS PREVIEWS EXCLUSIVE SIGNED EDITION

(W) Marjorie M. Liu (A/CA) Sana Takeda

It's been four months since the night of gore, chaos, and the failed demonic summoning that revealed the Ting twins' unusual family background. Since then, Milly and Billy have tried to explore their new powers but abundantly clear: the Ting family is part of a much larger supernatural world and something in that world is very, very wrong. Ipo and Keon are reluctantly drawn back into the treacherous high society of supernatural elites, their children find that dealings with the spirit world comes at a steep price—when the dead have unfinished business with the living, only blood can balance the scales. To save humanity and themselves, the Tings will have to embrace their inner demons. Eisner Award-winning and bestselling author Marjorie Liu and illustrator Sana Takeda have done it again, spinning an epic tale of gods and monsters in Her Little Reapers that will leave readers hungry for more. This PREVIEWS Exclusive signed edition with an exclusive cover will be limited to 2,500 copies. (STL269911) HC, 7x10, 272pgs, FC ..... $29.99

MUTTS: BREAKING THE CHAIN: THE GUARD DOG STORY HC

(W/A/CA) Patrick McDonnell

Guard Dog made his debut in Mutts in 1995 and quickly became one of the comic strip's most beloved characters. As a chained dog longing for freedom, he's played an important role in raising awareness about the cruelty of tethering and has inspired countless Mutts readers to become involved in animal welfare. In October 2023, nearly three decades after his debut, Guard Dog's freedom story began to unfold in newspapers and online. After being abandoned by his owner, left alone and suffering, Guard Dog was discovered by his animal friends Mooch and Earl, and ultimately rescued by Doozy, a kindly neighborhood girl, and Ozzie, Earl's guardian. After years of visiting Guard Dog to provide him with comfort and support, Doozy adopted him—marking the end of a long life of neglect and the beginning of one filled with love and safety. Featuring the complete story, now in color for the first time, Breaking the Chain is an emotionally resonant vignette whose grounding in the real-life animal neglect issues that affect millions of chained dogs worldwide will move both long-time Mutts fans and first-time readers. But Mickey is thrown off their game when Astra Maxima shows up to catch for the Gajety Gals, the Breads' fiercest rival. Years ago, Mickey and Astra were best friends... and maybe more. That was until Astra unceremoniously dumped Mickey to become a softball wunderkind at a private girl's school in Switzerland. Now, Astra is flirty, arrogant, and reckless on the field—everything the rule-abiding Mickey hates. Astra thinks Mickey's cute and wants to fool around, despite their rocky history and the trail of jilted softballers that Astra leaves in her wake. Too bad the only thing Mickey wants is vengeance for their broken heart and wounded pride! But even they have to admit—Astra is a certified babe. And that's not all: Astra isn't just a softball superstar, she's a full-fledged magical girl. (STL328889) (C: 0-1-0) SC, 6x9, 256pgs, FC ..... $18.99

Black Lives is an exciting new graphic novel series from award-winning author Tonya Bolden and illustrator David Wilkerson. Great Minds of Science celebrates the lives and contributions of Black scientists throughout history. Matilda Evans (physician), Archie Alexander (civil engineer), Gladys West (mathematician), Ayana Elizabeth Johnson (marine biologist). These aren't names that many people learn about in school, but they're some of the greatest scientists that people should know about—doctors, engineers, mathematicians, and biologists. Each of them faced challenges as they rose to the top of their professions, but they didn't back down. (STL328895) (C: 0-1-0)

THE MYTHMAKERS: THE REMARKABLE FELLOWSHIP OF C.S. LEWIS & J.R.R. TOLKIEN

(W/A) John Hendrix
Award-winning creator John Hendrix chronicles C.S. Lewis and J.R.R. Tolkien's near-idyllic childhoods, then moves on to both men's horrific tour of the trenches of World War I to their first meeting at Oxford in 1929, and then the foreshadowing, action, and aftermath of World War II. He reveals the shared story of their friendship, in all its ups and downs, that gave them confidence to venture beyond academic concerns (fantasy wasn't considered suitable for adult reading, but the domain of children), shaped major story/theme ideas, and shifted their ideas about the potential of mythology and faith. The Mythmakers also shows the camaraderie and the importance of the social/literary circle of friends called the Inklings, and how the friendship of these two great men fell apart and came together again. Hendrix shows how these two tweedy academics altered the course of storytelling and embraced the concept that fantasy writing for an adult audience was an accepted form of literature. LOST: BACK TO THE ISLAND: THE COMPLETE CRITICAL COMPANION TO THE TV SHOW SC

(W) Emily St. James, Noel Murray
Before it premiered in the fall of 2004, LOST looked doomed to be an expensive, disastrous plane crash of a TV show. Instead, LOST was a massive hit, debuting with the biggest audience for a new drama on ABC in over a decade, reaching heights of over 23 million viewers at its peak, and holding on to a hefty fan-base for its entire six-season run. In LOST: Back to the Island, TV critics and veteran LOST recappers Emily St. James and Noel Murray revisit what made the show such a success and an object of enduring cultural obsession, twenty years later. Through essays, episode summaries, and cultural analysis, they take us back to the island and examine LOST's lasting impact—and its complicated, sometimes controversial legacy—with a clear-eyed and lively investigation. ### SECTION VII: CASES OF THE STRANGE & UNNATURAL GN

(W) Tomasz Kontny, Marek Turner (A) Robert Adler & Various (CA) Robert Adler

In the shadowy aftermath of World War II, under the Soviet regime in 1950s Eastern Europe, a clandestine group of detectives is tasked with investigating paranormal phenomena across Poland. Navigating through haunted ruins and desolate villages, these agents confront not only the echoes of war but also supernatural entities and bizarre mysteries that defy explanation. Each chilling case is based on actual events, blending historical intrigue with eerie supernatural encounters. (STL329047) (C: 0-1-1)

NANCY SPECTOR, MONSTER DETECTIVE VOLUME 1: THE CASE OF THE MISSING SPOT GN

(W) Stephen W. Martin
 (A) Linh Pham
 The Invisible Man has a problem. His dog, Spot, is missing. Complicating matters, Spot is also invisible. So the Invisible Man turns to Nancy Spector for help. Nancy eagerly takes the case, and she and her grumpy best friend, a (visible) dog named Jinx, dive into the investigation. As they follow Spot's trail, they find themselves: riding dragons; searching the monster diner—because all dogs like hot dogs; fleeing from vicious chipmunk unicorns; shopping in a store that is a gelatinous candy cube named Bob; and paying a visit to Nancy's vampire friend Eugene's hamster's funeral. Every time they think Spot is right around the corner, things get more and more confusing, but Nancy knows that to a great detective, there is no such thing as a bad clue. And Nancy knows she's a great detective. Now she just needs to crack the case... (STL328874) (C: 0-1-0)

Welcome to the Resurgence of the Valiant Universe! This is it. The series that will change our heroes forever. The event of the summer is here! Prepare to see the unexpected: the rise of Dr. Silk, once an infamous villain, now a beacon of hope. He brings forth radical ideas of a utopian world where death is no longer a part of the human experience.

Many people will see him as a leader of peace and change, while others question his actions as everything has a cost, and Earth starts to break into different realities. With the help of Master Darque, Silk makes his silent magical/technological attack on the Faraway, causing many sinkholes to appear and panicking the world. Conflicts break out. War emerges...

Dr. Silk and his weavers craft webs of eternal life in a world shattered. Can our heroes navigate this new world order? The battle lines are drawn, and the only question is whose side you will be on when the dust settles — featuring X-O Manowar, Bloodshot, Eternal Warrior, Ninjak, Ivar, Rai, Livewire, Faith, and more!

Enter the world of Bloodshot in this brand-new Black, White, and Blood anthology! Meet Bloodshot, the world's deadliest assassin!

A super soldier engineered with Nanites, a versatile nanotechnology that allows Bloodshot to repair the damage inflicted on his body, change his appearance, and control machines.

In this first issue, Bloodshot is put to the limit when scientists try to farm never-ending meat from his self-repairing body to stop hunger in the world. Experience Bloodshot's feelings as he confronts his demons in a deadly mission in the desert... And what will happen when a serial killer interrupts his favorite new movie at the theater? Then, for the first time, the crossover nobody was asking for: it's Bloodshot versus... Mickey M?

Each tale deeply explores Bloodshot's psyche, tackling themes of identity, justice, and sacrifice in a world saturated with black, white, and blood-red shades.

When Vishnu returned to Vaikuntha after his Krishna avatar, Brahma, the creator, began to worry about the earth. Without Vishnu, he was afraid, chaos would ensue. So he and his son Narada, the wandering sage, set in motion a plan to get Vishnu to return to earth. A talking anthill, an arrogant sage, an irate cowherd and even the asura king Ravana, each have their parts to play in these stories that describe the founding of the Venkateshwara temple at Tirupati. Set amongst the lovely Tirumala hills, this temple to Lord Vishnu, is one of the most beautiful temples in the world. It is said that more than 50,000 people visit this shrine every day, to pray to Venkateshwara to wash away their sins.

BEFORE 13TH GN

(W) Michael Ralph

(A) Jason Piperberg, Laura Molnar

Told from the perspectives of statesman and orator Frederick Douglass, and journalist and activist Ida B. Wells, Before 13th is a story that illuminates the contradictions of freedom. Friends and rivals, Douglass and Wells clashed over how to grapple with the racism and exoticism that defined portrayals of African Americans at the 1896 Chicago World's Fair, where Douglass was invited to speak after they had initially agreed to boycott the event. It uses the story of this real-life conflict as a lens through which we see the history of slavery and incarceration as never before. Historical anthropologist Michael Ralph joins forces with artist Jason Piperberg and acclaimed illustrator Laura Molnar to reimagine these two influential Black Americans and the controversies surrounding the Thirteenth Amendment, which some contend did not abolish slavery, claiming instead it was used to keep African Americans in a condition approximating bondage in the years immediately following Emancipation. ANIMAL RESCUE FRIENDS VOLUME 4: FINDING HOME GN

(W/A) Various Bell, Maddie, and the whole ARF crew are back with a brand-new collection of stories! When ARF is flooded with requests for pet-care advice, the kids come up with a great idea to reach lots of people at once: They'll start an animal-care podcast! But when the hard work of creating a podcast leads to lots of new and exciting opportunities outside the rescue, the gang finds itself pulled in different directions. The kids tackle big changes—to their friendships, to themselves, and even to ARF itself—in these stories about friendship, responsibility, and cooperation. DAY ONE DICTATOR: MORE DOONESBURY IN THE TIME OF TRUMPISM

(W/A/CA) G. B. Trudeau As Trump returns to the ballot in 2024, this collection of Doonesbury Sunday comics about the former (and possibly future) president will hit just ahead of one of the most significant election cycles in decades. This volume also features the Doonesbury regulars, with Alex and Toggle raising three free-range kids and Mike happily wallowing in grandpahood. Mr. Covid retires, proud to know his willier, more adaptive descendants will keep taking the fight to the unvaxxed. Joanie thinks Rick's latest story is the best thing he's ever written: too bad it was actually authored by ChatGPT. Roland and Rascal, wading through Ukrainian snowdrifts, blunder into a Meta crack-up. Not even fantasy is making sense, but in Day One Dictator, G.B. Trudeau gives it his best shot yet. BREAKING CAT NEWS; GOOD AS GOLDIE TP

(W/A) Georgia Dunn This just in: There's a new cat in the neighborhood and she is all kinds of mysterious! The Breaking Cat News crew has never met a cat quite like Goldie before. Street smart, wildlife savvy, and determined to solve the mystery of how her People vanished, Goldie is here to turn life in and out of the studio upside down! Along the way they'll meet trash collecting raccoons, a fork wielding squirrel, and one brave little chipmunk! Go undercover with Tommy and Beatrix as Goldie gets to the bottom of this case with the help of Lupin's (stolen) tape recorder. It's an exciting adventure for the BCN team with friends old and new, and you're invited! (STL329021) (C: 0-1-1) SC, 9x6, 240pgs, FC.....$12.99

THE MOOSICIANS GN

(W) Steve Behling (A) Jeff Crowther Meet The Moosicians—four adorable-bull cows who share one dream: winning Amoorica's Next Big Thing. Hugh Oxley dreams of becoming a singer. But he's never left his farm. Daisy wants to shred on her guitar for big crowds. Tauro plays bass, and though he's a bull of few words, his notes can't be beat. Coco is a drummer. She's good. She's also intense. Together, this ragtag crew is The Moosicians. They're hilarious, they're fun, and they're ready to rock. But can The Moosicians win the music competition, or are all of their dreams doomed? (STL329022) (C: 0-1-0) SOFTCOVER—SC, 6x9, 128pgs, FC.....$12.99

CLOSE TO HOME 30TH-ANNIVERSARY TREASURY: THE BEST OF 30 YEARS SC

(W/A) John McPherson This special anthology celebrates three decades of John McPherson's quick-witted and zany characters, whose unconventional and twisted humor make Close to Home one of the funniest cartoons in the comics world! This collection presents the best cartoons from the strip's repertoire, representing the major themes that have played out in its history: school, medical, office, kids, marriage, and sports. John McPherson has selected the best of the best in each category and he provides commentary on the strips. The book includes a section with a brief tutorial on how he creates the cartoon. This compendium of McPherson's funniest comics includes over 800 comics hand-selected by the author and his editors. (STL328963) (C: 0-1-0) SC, 8x11, 208pgs, FC.....$19.99

Tom Holland changed the landscape of vampire movies in 1985 with the release of Fright Night. Holland's vision delivered something new - a vampire story that packed horror, humor, and heart into one unforgettable film. This landmark movie changed the way horror movies were made forever and opened the door to a new breed of horror. Fright Night introduces Charlie Brewster, a typical teenager with a not-so-typical neighbor. A vampire has moved in next door and now this teenage horror fan must stop the undead monster before it can bleed his hometown dry! All your favorite characters return in this new Fright Night comic book series that continues Holland's original screenplay and the novelization of Fright Night!

American Mythology is proud to work with Terror Time (the studio that represents Tom Holland's incredible story) to produce a one-of-a-kind official graphic novel collection project that is a touching sequel and a story that delivers the next steps in the lives of Charley, Amy, Evil Ed, and Peter Vincent.

ALL OUR ORDINARY STORIES GN

(W/A) Teresa Wong
Beginning with her mother's stroke in 2014, Teresa Wong takes us on a moving journey through time and place to locate the beginnings of the disconnection she feels from her parents. Through a series of stories—some epic, like her mother and father's daring escapes from communes during China's Cultural Revolution, and some banal, like her quitting Chinese school to watch Saturday morning cartoons—Wong carefully examines the cultural, historical, language, and personality barriers to intimacy in her family, seeking answers to the questions "Where did I come from?" and "Where are we going?" At the same time, she discovers how storytelling can bridge distances and help make sense of a life. (STL328283) (C: 0-1-0)

SOMETHING, NOT NOTHING: A STORY OF GRIEF AND LOVE GN

(W/A/CA) Sarah Leavitt
In April 2020, cartoonist Sarah Leavitt's partner of twenty-two years, Donimo, died with medical assistance after years of severe chronic pain and a rapid decline at the end of her life. About a month after Donimo's death, Sarah began making comics again as a way to deal with her profound sense of grief and loss. The comics started as small sketches but quickly transformed into something totally unfamiliar to her. Abstract images, textures, poetic text, layers of watercolor, ink, and colored pencil—for Sarah, the journey through grief was impossible to convey without bold formal experimentation. She spent two years creating these comics. The result is Something, Not Nothing, an extraordinary book that delicately articulates the vagaries of grief and the sweet remembrances of enduring love. THE SCRAPBOOK OF LIFE AND DEATH GN

(W/A) J Webster Sharp
'Dentist Robs Women of Teeth' — 'Death Chair for Nice Old Man' — 'Mother Feeds Son Like Bird.' The British newspaper clipping collection of egalitarian George Ives, collected between 1892 and 1949, ranged from murder and theories of crime to cricket scores. He was fascinated by the unusual, the gothic, the sexual, and the melodramatic. In this graphic novel, acclaimed cartoonist J. Webster Sharp shares some of the most bizarre stories from his archives in silent comics form. With often shocking, visceral black and white artwork, the strangeness and eccentricity of the Edwardian era provides a backdrop for Sharp's own struggles with mental health. The Scrapbook of Life and Death is a fascinating, personal window into forgotten historical views of eccentric and socially transcendent and disturbing behaviors—and their resonance in life today. In this explosive new hard-boiled neo-Western thriller by writer Jeff McComsey (THE FOURTH MAN) and artist Felipe Cunha (GATSBY), Cole, a straight-arrow handyman, finds himself in the crosshairs of a ruthless crime syndicate—along with his pregnant wife. But what is the meaning of the “little black book” of underworld contacts Cole’s deceased father had hidden in his home? Cole’s father believed the best thing he could do for his son was to stay out of his life, but does the apple fall far from the tree...?

THE ART OF THE BOX HC

Before the days of brand awareness campaigns and digital marketing, a game's only source of advertising was often limited to the box artwork you'd see on high street shelves. With early game graphics offering little visual interest, it fell to the packaging to conjure up engaging images of deep space battles, medieval knights and wizards, explosive military operations, and monstrous alien creatures. And every cover had to be hand-crafted by an artist using traditional media, often with a short deadline and the vaguest of briefs. The Art of The Box features 26 biographies of those artists who, at some point in their careers, found themselves illustrating video game packaging, including Bob Wakelin, Steve Hendricks, Ken Macklin, Tom DuBois, Steinar Lund, Marc Ericksen, Julie Bell and Susumu Matsumita among many others. GO STRAIGHT: THE ULTIMATE GUIDE TO SIDE-SCROLLING BEAT-'EM-UPS HC

Get ready for the fight of your life in Go Straight: The Ultimate Guide to Side-Scrolling Beat-'Em-Ups. Written by award-winning author Dave Cook, and opening with a foreword by legendary Double Dragon creator Yoshihisa Kishimoto, this odyssey through bare-knuckle nostalgia features over 200 games spanning 37 years, starting with Irem's 1984 arcade mash, Kung-Fu Master, continuing through the genre's '90s heyday, and finishing with indie brawlers such as Mother Russia Bleeds and Streets of Rage 4. Go Straight takes a deep dive into familiar beat-'em-up legends like Double Dragon, Golden Axe, Final Fight and Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles, as well as delving into the more obscure brawlers you just have to try, like Bonestorm, Denjin Makai, Shadow Force and Gaia Crusaders. (STL328363) (C: 0-1-0)

FROM ANTS TO ZOMBIES: SIX DECADES OF VIDEO GAME HORROR

From Ants to Zombies is a showcase for the remarkable range horror gaming has achieved, across six decades, from the 1970s to the 2020s, and over 70 hardware platforms, from the ZX Spectrum to the Xbox Series X. More than 130 horror titles are analyzed and contextualised across thirteen thematically-divided chapters, covering a variety of genres (from rail shooters to open-world RPGs), settings (from haunted mansions to infested space stations) and shades of fear (from creeping existential dread to stomach-churning outbursts of violence). The discussion is enlivened by exclusive commentary from pioneering horror developers such as Keiichiro Toyama (Silent Hill), Jane Jensen (Gabriel Knight), Ken Levine (System Shock 2), Sandy White (Ant Attack), David Riordan (It Came from the Desert), Paul Norman (Forbidden Forest), Graeme Devine (The 7th Guest), and many more. A GUIDE TO JAPANESE ROLE PLAYING GAMES HC

Welcome to the world of Japanese Role-Playing Games! From Dragon Quest to Final Fantasy, from Megami Tensei to Pokémon, A Guide to Japanese Role-Playing Games explores the expansive history of Japanese role-playing games (JRPGs), beginning on 8-bit microcomputers, and following them all the way up to the heavy hitters of the modern era. Created in collaboration with author Kurt Kalata, this is an ambitious project that aims to cover the entire history of Japanese role-playing games from 1982 to 2020. As well as reviews of over 600 games, covering a wide range of sub-genres, including strategy RPGs like Fire Emblem, Roguelikes such as Mystery Dungeon, and first-person dungeon crawlers like Etrian Odyssey, it includes articles on the genre, its music and art. PC ENGINE: THE BOX ART COLLECTION HC

NEC's PC Engine was more than just a games console. It was part of a movement in the late-1980s that saw a bold new aesthetic emerge in Japan that would soon spread across the globe, shaping art, design, and creativity everywhere it went. As the country's games, movies, music, design, and fashion influenced one another, the brilliant box art of the PC Engine's remarkable library capably captured the spread of artistic approaches and styles that made up the movement. PC Engine: The Box Art Collection celebrates the diversity, vibrancy, sophistication, and personality seen across the covers of the best and most interesting Japanese releases for NEC's undersized powerhouse. # LEADED GASOLINE

(writer) PATRICK KINDLON (artist + cover B) LORENZO RE (covers A&C) DAVID MURDOCH

$4.99 | 36 pages | B&W | Mature

In the 1980s a killer stalks the streets of South Los Angeles. Task forces are assembled, detectives work overtime, but the bodies keep coming. This is the story of a community college professor who believes there's more to the story than a single madman.

From writer PATRICK KINDLON (Frontiersman, Nobody Is In Control, We Can Never Go Home) and your next favorite artist LORENZO RE, Leaded Gasoline captures the mad energy of the most brash and risk-taking horror comics that are smart, dangerous, and intent on taking a sledgehammer to your mind.

"Inspired by the killings in Los Angeles known as the 'Southside Slayer'... in this story, police are aided by a college professor, a single father trying to care for his son." —THE NEW YORK TIMES

Ausar is now faced with an impossible decision. Will he choose to pursue the very real threat of the ancients below the mountain? Or aid in fighting the Spartans who have a significant advantage? Ausar knows the battle is most likely lost without his aide. But he chooses to deal with the ancients instead and requests soldiers to back him up. As they press deeper into the mountain, the Spartans have now launched a full-fledged invasion by land. Thousands of soldiers battle across the borders of Akrotiri but they maintain the line as best they can. Meanwhile Ausar exposes the real threat. Ausar finds out the Sumerians are here and actually control the ancients. A dangerous battle ensues for control of the underground, but Ausar will not yield! (STL328693) (C: 0-1-1)

Ausar leads a desperate attempt to stop a Sumerian incursion under the mountain. Legend has it that an ancient of unspeakable power is buried underneath and the Minoans will do anything to keep it that way. It is in this battle where Ausar faces off against his most powerful enemy to date, the warrior Kingu. Little do the heroes know but while the battle rages for control of the mountain, the Spartans are in full advantage in the land battle in Akrotiri. Just as things are starting to look like it will all work out, an ancient power awakens and the difference in power between Ausar and this new foe is like a canyon. There is little hope for the people of Minoa and now Ausar struggles to keep his family alive. (STL328694) (C: 0-1-1)

MY VAMPIRE VS. YOUR WEREWOLF GN

(W/A) Paul Tobin

Gabe and Hayden have a vampire. Joon and Tradd have a werewolf. And they're going to fight. After modern society pushed monsters into hiding, the Crafters Guild was formed: An organization of humans and other creatures intent on fostering community amongst these exiled beings and combating the decline in monster mental health. Their solution? A no-holds-barred clash of the titans, where two monsters can fight it out with no limits. With young coaches to guide them, the monsters must prepare for a battle that will test their strengths, smarts, and special abilities. But it's just a friendly competition—nothing could possibly go wrong... right? (STL328570) (C: 0-1-0)

FISHING MEMORIES GN
 (W) Miguel Peres
 (A/CA) Majory Yokomizo
 Lethe is trapped on a deserted island, with no recollection of how he got there. The only hope he has to save himself is to fish for memories that float in the sea and try to recover his identity in order to escape. In a sensitive story of memory and family, Miguel Peres, one of the most promising writers of the new Portuguese comic book scene, joins emerging Brazilian artist Majory Yokomizo to tell a story that is also a reminder, now more than ever, that we should enjoy the good moments of life, because tomorrow can bring an unpredictable world of chaos.  We open this latest issue with Glenn Farby who was one of the seminal artists from 2000AD in the UK, and then became one of favorite cover illustrators for the Vertigo line of comics in the USA. Then we remember Glen Orbik who brought back all the thrills and chills from the crime pulp covers of the 1940s into the new millennium. We take a look back at Howard Chandler Christy, creator of the Christy Girl, and then at some German children's books about children behaving badly and how they inspired some popular comic strips and animated cartoons. Everyone knows the days of keeping unbagged comic books lying around are long gone – bags and boards are a forgone conclusion in this modern world of collecting. But what about when a bag and board aren't enough? Do you want to lie awake all night worrying that your comic is developing irreversible stresses that will reduce its value a thousandfold? You need something a little tougher to keep that comic safe, and Iron Guard Supplies has just the thing. In addition to a full range of bags and boards in all sizes, Iron Guard now offers comic toploaders, rigid sleeves that will keep your comic protected from even the most unforgiving longbox. Sleep easy, my friend.

BARBIE: A CELEBRATION OF AN ICON HC

(W) Massimiliano Capella, Sylvia Adrian Notini

Barbie: A Celebration of the Icon is a picture book that tells the story of one of the most influential trendsetters in history: Barbie Millicent Roberts. At 65 years of age, the doll continues to be an inspirational muse, true to her nature as a fashion icon, but ever more inclusive and attentive to global issues, consistent with her motto, "You can be anything," which is increasingly contemporary. In the 2023 movie Barbie, directed by Greta Gerwig, she appeared for the first time in the flesh thanks to actress Margot Robbie, a true contemporary transposition of the original "Teenage Fashion Doll" presented at the New York Toy Fair on March 9, 1959: sinuous lines and a striking face commensurate with the sophisticated aesthetics of the stars of the 1950s.

In this book, through five sections and an up-to-date timeline (1959–2024), Barbie helps us reinterpret the social and aesthetic trends that have exercised their influence from the 1950s to present day through history, fashion, society, art, and costume. (STL328879) (C: 0-1-0)

TERRY AND THE PIRATES: THE MASTER COLLECTION, VOL. 9—1943: TERRY EARNS HIS WINGS

Writer/Artist: Milton Caniff

The saga continues in Terry and the Pirates Volume 9, reproduced from Milton Caniff's personal set of color syndicate tabloid proofs!

Flip Corkin schools Joe Jitsu in good ol' American know-how before he schools Terry about the ins-and-outs of being a fighter pilot. The October 17th Sunday page—as Terry earns his wings and Flip delivers “The Pilot’s Creed”—is so powerful it was read into the Congressional Record. Before that can happen, wily Rouge abducts Taffy Tucker and gives her amnesia before slipping away! Taffy is in safe hands, however, when she falls under the wing of Connie, Big Stoop, and Navy Lieutenant Pat Ryan! Taffy’s reunion with her memory and with Flip coincides with the arrival of Flight Lieutenant Tote Bonny and Grett Murrur, while Terry investigates the French Captain Midi, whom some find almost—hypnotic.

This tabloid-sized Volume 9 containing the 1943 dailies and Sundays is an unparalleled upgrade that no Terry fan can afford to pass up.

 Dex Dingo isn't the BEST at anything. He's not the SMARTEST, the FUNNIEST, the STRONGEST, or the NICEST. But he wants to be the WORLD'S BEST GREATEST EVER... at something. So when Dex's teacher asks, "If you could be anything when you grow up, what would you be," Dex decides that he's going to be the best at one of the "best jobs ever." First on his list: an inventor! Dex is able to create an awesome lab and an amazing team of nanobots, but things immediately go wrong when the nanobots start to multiply and form a gray goo that threatens to take over his neighborhood. It'll take some quick thinking and a rogue nanobot named Nono for Dex to stop the nanobots, save his best friend, and become the WORLD'S BEST GREATEST INVENTOR. Filled with clever humor and touching insight, this chapter book graphic novel series follows Dex's misadventures as his attempts at the "coolest jobs" go awry. VOLUME 3 HC*ACME NOVELTY DATEBOOK

VOLUMES 1-3 LIMITED EDITION
BOX SET(W/A/CA) Chris Ware*

The third and final installment of the artist's facsimile sketchbook series! After over fifteen years deferral, delay and dawdling, the ink-and-paper cheerleader F. C. Ware finally succumbs to imaginary public pressure by concluding his tiresome experiment in reader trust with the third and final volume of secret notebooks and sketches spanning over thirty-seven years of bus rides, airport delays and telephone hold music. Exquisitely crafted fine art doodles, hand-selected meanderings and artisanal rewritings of personal conflict are scattered throughout comic strips unconsciously revealing private hostilities and unflattering portraits of public transportation riders, the whole carefully cleansed of any impugnable or litigious tracery. As a professional adult-picture-book drawer and regular contributor to the New Yorker, Le Monde and the Illinois Cook County Assessor's office, Mr. Ware's work in these pages secures his reputation as a reliably unreliable self-narrator, willing to say or write anything to win petty disputes and imagined squabbles. 208 full-color pages augmented by annotations, introduction and a professional apology, with paper boards and cloth spine of misleading demureness to conceal its native prurience.

Also available is the ACME Novelty Datebook Volumes 1-3 Limited Edition Box Set. Featuring the previously released Volumes 1 & 2 — along with the newly issued Volume 3 — this limited edition box set comes in a compacted and easily recyclable slipcase, the spine of which is punched through with a training timepiece for those caregivers who would like to adjust its miniature metal hands as a teaching aid to suit their own pedagogical exercise, private nostalgia or personal anxiety. DOG DAYS GN

(W) Keum Suk Gendry-Kim
Yuna never wanted to adopt a dog. But with her partner in mourning—and in desperate need of a boost in morale—she gives in to his humble request. And in the grand tradition of reluctant pet owners, she and their puppy soon become inseparable. The young couple even goes so far as to relocate to soothe their new canine pal's anxiety. After all, there's nothing like a move to the country to set yourself right. Right? The idyll of a quiet life soon gives way to a surprising degree of antagonism, including clashes with long-time local residents of a different generation. The culture shock is palpable for all three urban transplants as the isolation of their new environs starts to sink in. They eventually adopt another dog, and still another—all while reckoning with the ups and downs of middle-age and childlessness in an unforgettingly traditional milieu. (STL329582) SC, 5.9x8.3, 212pgs, PC.....$24.95

FORCES OF NATURE GN

(W) Ed Steed
One swing trapeze artist prepares to receive a newborn child from another all the while shrieking "Support the head!" A hopeful, naked Adam reaches high for the largest leaf while a frustrated Eve hands him a smaller, more-appropriately sized leaf. A dejected squid stands in a doorway, shock and dismay on his face, as a ruined surprise party lies in wait before him—guests, presents, and birthday cake covered in a blast of ink in mid-"Sur..." as loose balloons butt against the ceiling. Once in generation, a distinctly new perspective emerges from the pages of The New Yorker. In our times, that perspective belongs to Ed Steed. Steeped in the classic formalist tradition of the single-panel gag, Steed possesses a shocking and macabre talent for drawings guaranteed to make even the most composed of casual readers laugh out loud. At times reminiscent of Charles Addams, George Booth, William Steig, Saul Steinberg, and Edward Gorey, the artist defies the blasé, urbane worldview of the magazine in which his comics appear. What happens when a childhood hobby grows into a lifelong career? The Loneliness of the Long-Distance Cartoonist, Adrian Tomine's funniest and most revealing foray into autobiography, offers an array of unexpected answers. When a sudden medical incident lands Tomine in the emergency room, he begins to question if it was really all worthwhile: despite the accolades and opportunities of a seemingly charmed career, it's the gaffes, humiliations, slights, and insults he's experienced (or caused) within the industry that loom largest in his memory. Adrian Tomine

Q&A SC

(W) Adrian Tomine
For over thirty years, bestselling author, screenwriter, and New Yorker cover artist Adrian Tomine's work has set the standard for contemporary storytelling. With Tomine, his readership has grown from the dedicated following of his comic-book series Optic Nerve to include a wider but still engaged, opinionated, and ever-inquiring public. And now, for the first time in print, Tomine responds to his readers directly, tackling their questions and comments with generosity, humor, and vulnerability. Q&A is one part personal history, one part masterclass in crafting quality entertainment. With questions pulled from his time at the Substack Writers' Residency, and with additional, new material, Q&A is an indispensable addition to the collections of eagle-eyed fans and aspiring artists, writers, and cartoonists alike. The artist looks back on his career in response to queries from his—maybe adoring but mostly curious—public with his signature dry wit and unflinching, self-deprecating honesty. SCENES FROM AN IMPENDING MARRIAGE HC

(W/A/CA) Adrian Tomine
At the behest of his soon-to-be wife, Adrian Tomine set out to create a wedding favor for their guests that would be funnier and more personal than the typical chocolate bars and picture frames. What started out as a simple illustrated card soon grew into a full-fledged comic book: a collection of short strips chronicling the often absurd process of getting married. A loose, cartoony departure from Tomine's previous work, Scenes From An Impending Marriage is a sweet-natured, laugh-out-loud skewering of the modern marriage process, including hiring a DJ, location scouting, trips to the salon, suit fittings, dance lessons, registering for gifts, and managing familial demands. Tomine's screenplay is presented here in its final "shooting draft" form, along with extensive annotations, commentary, and bonuses including deleted and alternate scenes. YOKAI: THE ART OF SHIGERU MIZUKI HC

(W/A/CA) Shigeru Mizuki
Shigeru Mizuki is no stranger to the supernatural and its portents. Kitaro and Tono Monogatari reimagined the obscure folktales of his youth, bringing them to life with whimsy. Mizuki the cartoonist certainly left an indelible mark on comics as world literature. Mizuki the fine artist, on the other hand, rounds out the full scope of his fascination with the otherworldly and fantastic, bringing these worlds to life in robust color. Yokai: The Art of Shigeru Mizuki showcases his expertise of not only folklore, but celebrates him as a naturalist. Elements of Mizuki's lush compositions—flora, fauna, and everything in between—showcase his mastery of form and love for nature. Pieces in this deluxe, full-color edition call to mind the playful pop-sensibility of Maurice Sendak informed by the technical prowess of traditionalists like Dürer and Doré. And like any other Mizuki classic, each oeuvre is a unique snapshot of spirit, human or otherwise, in constant transition. (STL282400) (C: 0-1-2)

THE WAITING TP

(W/A/CA) Keum Suk Gendry-Kim
The Waiting is the fictional story of Gwija, told by her novelist daughter Jina. When Gwija was 17 years old, after hearing that the Japanese were seizing unmarried girls, her family married her in a hurry to a man she didn't know. Japan fell, Korea gained its independence, and the couple started a family. But peace didn't come. The young family fled south. On the road, while breastfeeding and changing her daughter, Gwija was separated from her husband and son. (STL194067)

THROUGH RED WINDOWS #1

BY RAM V & JOËLLE JONES

One of the hottest writers in comics, Ram V (The One Hand, The Many Deaths of Laila Starr) teams up with artist extraordinaire Joëlle Jone (Catwoman, Lady Killer) to tell a modern horror story that will leave you guessing until the bitter end!

When ailing Plutocrat, Harlan Roderick, invites his young protégé Athul Laal to live at Roderick Place in downtown Manhattan, what Athul believes to be his first step into the inner circle of the world's elite, soon turns into a living nightmare.

Athul discovers that Harlan and his illness are inextricably connected to the high-rise, in which, behind each door, lie secrets and monsters from both Harlan and Athul's own lives.

THROUGH RED WINDOWS is a grim thriller with overtones of gothic horror, loosely inspired by Poe but with a very modern twist. Not for the faint of heart!

LIFE #2

BY BRIAN AZZARELLO, STEPHANIE PHILLIPS, DANIJEL ŽEŽELJ & LEE LOUGHRIDGE

THE HIT SCI-FI series from DSTLRY continues!

Writers Brian Azzarello (THE BLOOD BROTHERS MOTHER, 100 Bullets) and Stephanie Phillips (Grim, Harley Quinn) team up with artist Danijel Zezelj (Nostalgia) & colorist Lee Loughridge (Deadly Class) to create a masterfully crafted flip book, housing two enthralling stories in one!

Infamous thief Bobby Flame and his crew meet an unexpected hurdle while trying to rob a former prison planet... the prisoners are still alive more than 200 years later and immortality is not all that it's cracked up to be! Ravaged by time, the prisoners look like the monsters they were always accused of being, and they want Bobby's spaceship. With a way off the planet finally presenting itself after centuries, C.J. and the other prisoners will stop at nothing to gain their freedom.

Each issue of LIFE is a flip book, housing one story from two different points of view. A prison break and a heist both offer interlocking narratives, creating an immersive experience that will challenge your perceptions of justice while begging the immortal question, "Who really wants to live forever?"

For fans of ALIENS, OCEAN'S ELEVEN, GUARDIANS OF THE GALAXY.

THE HIT
FOR THE
FIRST TIME!

From international superstar MIRKA ANDOLFO (Sweet Paprika, Mercy, Unnatural, Harley Quinn, Punchline) comes a new horror comedy graphic novel that only Andolfo can deliver-asking the question: how many fans is your soul worth?

Clelia, the reigning queen of pop, finds her throne shaken by a newcomer radiating with enigmatic charm. As her fans waver and the public eye threatens to wander, Clelia and her demonic agent, Father Lev, are thrust into a battle for dominance on this exhilarating stage of music and mysticism. How far will they go to defend her reign and unravel the mystery of this sensational new threat?

Mixing the sacred and profane, Harvey Award-winning Mirka Andolfo effortlessly merges the mythological urban fantasy of American Gods with the sardonic wit of The Good Place in a brand new dark series featuring stunning visual and narrative intensity set in the glittering world of pop music.

THERE'S A SERIAL KILLER IN THE GHETTO... MESCHUGGE

Copenhagen, Denmark, 1905. Terror is spreading in the Ghetto. Who can stop the murders? Who can bring truth to light?

Following a series of murders in the ghetto, a young Jewish typist is recruited by the Police to assist in their investigation. They feel that having an insider would help them solve the crimes in a place perceived as impenetrable to them.

Her research leads her on the trail of a bloodthirsty murderer whose acts are rooted in old superstitions and who marks his victims with kabbalistic symbols. Her pursuit gradually turns into a personal quest, where she will have to confront her own roots and deepest fears.

Soon, the hunter becomes the prey. As the killer targets her. Can she survive this?

In the tradition of Jack the Ripper or The Alienist, this gripping Scandinavian thriller takes us deep into the heart of a ghetto where poverty intersects with crime to better blur the tracks of a predator whose nightmare visions foreshadow the terrible events to come.

Written by Benni Bødker (Christmas Bestiary, Grimm 1-2) with art and cover by Christian Højgaard (House of Secrets, the Dreaming).

New name. Same great content.

MY TIME MACHINE: A GRAPHIC NOVEL

By Carol Lay

$24.99 / HC / 168 pgs / FC /
7.5" x 10.5"

After finding the blueprints to the Time Traveler of H.G. Wells' novel, a middle-aged woman constructs a (more or less) functioning time machine and decides to save humanity from itself. She heads into the future, encountering ecological collapse and an America that has devolved into full-blown totalitarianism. My Time Machine is both a sly, cautionary political satire and a rollicking time travel story, full of edge-of-your-seat suspense, breezy badinage, and a deeply felt wonder at the universe. It is serious and funny, timely and timeless (literally).

HATE REVISITED #4

By Peter Bagge

$4.99 / Comic Book /
24 pgs / FC / 6.6" x 10.3"

The final issue of HATE REVISITED is upon us! The Bradley boys — brothers Butch and Buddy, and Buddy's son, Harold — take center stage in a rousing conclusion that spans 1980s suburban New Jersey to present day Seattle, settling old scores and finding some grace along the way. If this is the end of HATE, it's a fitting end to one of the great humor series of all time.

OCULTOS

By Laura Pérez

$24.99 / HC / 152 pgs / FC / 9.5" x 6.7"

Ocultos swirls together a series of stories that form a bridge between our world and the next, where thoughts and dreams can bend and shape reality. A woman in therapy is haunted by disturbing visions; a lonely widower feels a presence in her house; a little boy sees bright lights flash across the night sky. Celebrated Spanish comics artist Laura Pérez (Totem) presents another entrancing vision of magic and mystery. Artfully rendered in her signature wispy, atmospheric pencil, Ocultos is a spiritual, reflective work that will leave you spellbound.

SPOTLIGHT ON

ELISE AND THE NEW PARTISANS

By Tardi and
Dominique Grange

$29.99 / HC / 176 pgs / BW / 8.75" x 11.75"

Peted French cartoonist Tardi masterfully dramatizes the activist and singer Dominique Grange's gripping first-person account of the student protests that rocked France from the '60s to the '70s. Drawn with typical mastery by legendary French cartoonist Tardi, this graphic novel resonates powerfully at a time when the fight against injustice still rages.

WALT DISNEY'S DONALD DUCK VACATION PARADE

By Frédéric Brémaud and Federico Bertolucci

$19.99 / HC / 48 pgs / FC / 9.6" x 12.6"

Driven senseless by Duckburg's hustle and bustle, Donald Duck goes on a peaceful camping trip in the forest. But can our mad mallard find rest and relaxation? Not if Chip 'n Dale and Humphrey Bear have their way!

Frédéric Brémaud and Federico Bertolucci, the team behind the world-renowned Love graphic novels, present a comics tribute to Donald's Golden Age animation career. It's a feature-length epic in Brémaud's and Bertolucci's acclaimed pantomime style.

WALT DISNEY'S DONALD DUCK ADVENTURES MINI COLLECTION

By Carl Barks

$19.99 / Box Set / 350 pgs / FC / 7.25" x 5.5"

Our newest Disney collection features nearly 300 pages of Donald Duck comic adventures in three landscape-format paperback volumes inside a nifty slipcase with all the original story and art by Disney legend Carl Barks! Included are "Ghost in the Grotto," "Sheriff of Bullet Valley" and "The Golden Helmet." All of this at a budget price!

DISNEY MASTERS COLLECTORS BOX SET #11: VOLS. 21 & 22

By Paul Murry and Giorgio Cavazzano

$69.99 / HC / 376 pgs / FC / 8" x 10.9"

Explore classic Disney adventures with Disney Masters Vol. 21: Mickey Mouse: The Monster of Sawtooth Mountain and Vol. 22: Uncle Scrooge: Operation Galleon Grab! Fantagraphics' Disney Masters series unearths a treasure trove of previously unavailable comics epics in the grand Walt Disney tradition: expanding the lore of Mickey, Donald, and Scrooge, anthologizing the work of fan-favorite North American talents, and bringing you the best of the acclaimed international artists who have popularized Disney around the world.

THE COMPLETE PEANUTS: 1993-1994 VOL. 22 PAPERBACK EDITION

By Charles M. Schulz, Introduction by Jake Tapper

$22.99 / SC / 344 pgs / BW / 8.3" x 6.6"

In the 22nd volume of The Complete Peanuts, Charlie Brown is a baseball hero, Linus lobbies the White House to nominate Snoopy for an open Supreme Court seat and Woodstock discovers his long-lost grandfather's diary. Featuring impeccable production values, each volume of this series features two successive years of newspaper strips (dailies and Sundays), plus bonus material such as celebrity introductions, interviews, and a brief biography of Schulz himself.

THE COMPLETE PEANUTS 1991-1994 VOLS. 21 & 22 GIFT BOX SET, PAPERBACK EDITION

By Charles M. Schulz, Introductions by Tom Tomorrow & Jake Tapper

$39.99 / Box Set / 648 pgs / BW / 8.4" x 6.9"

Also, this season, a new box set collects the latest two volumes (Vols. 21 and 22) of the paperback series.

THE FABULOUS FURRY FREAK BROTHERS: HIGH TIMES AND MISDEMEANORS

By Gilbert Shelton and Dave Sheridan

$22.99 / HC / 144 pgs / FC / 8.3" x 10.6"

The Brothers establish their own low-fare one-vehicle bus line in "The $29.95 SF to NYC Non-Stop Whiteline Cannonball Express." Of course, they forget to include the cost of gas in their plans and don't understand the meaning of "express". Other Freak follies in this volume include all the color strips published in High Times and Playboy magazines. Plus: Fat Freddy's Cat stars in "Chariots of the Globbs" and "The Burning of Hollywood," along with other solo outings! High Times and Misdemeanors is the fifth release in this special series of seven graphic albums.

CRUSHER LOVES BLEEDER, BLEEDER LOVES CRUSHER

By Thomas Stemrich and Patrick Keck

$29.99 / HC / 120 pgs / BW / 8.9" x 11.3"

A boy loves a bug and a bug loves a boy, but can a bug love a boy for more than his blood? Find out if a Bleeder and a Crusher can buck biology and be best buds in a world divided by conditioning and conditioned by division. This acerbically sweet graphic novel by Patrick Keck and Thomas Herpich is a wonderfully unpretentious yet oddly affecting love story at its core, beautifully drawn.

INNOCENCE AND SEDUCTION: THE ART OF DAN DECARLO

By Dan DeCarlo and Bill Morrison

$65.00 / HC / 248 pgs / FC / 9.25" x 12.25"

Dan DeCarlo redesigned the look of Archie Comics, creating Josie and the Pussycats and Sabrina the Teenage Witch along the way. This lavish retrospective of his work is now expanded and even more generously illustrated with his genre-defining approach to teenage humor and his (sometimes risqué) appreciative delineation of the female form.

KORAK: AT THE EARTH'S CORE SC

(W) Win Scott Eckert, Christopher P. Carey
(A) Mike Wolfer (CA) E.M. Gist
Korak the Killer, jungle-raised son of Tarzan of the Apes, sets off into the wilds of the prehistoric world at the Earth's core to rescue his daughter Suzanne Clayton, who has gone missing in the mysterious Land of Awful Shadow. But when the airship O-220 is hijacked, Korak and his Mangani friend Akut are stranded and must fight their way across the savage lands and seas of Pellucidar. Meanwhile, Korak's mate Meriem, also racing to save Suzanne, risks everything in a perilous gambit to quickly reach the inner world. And what of the enigmatic Dead Moon, the pendant world that hangs eternally above the Land of Awful Shadow and is taboo to the Stone Age peoples of Pellucidar? Will the Dead World give up its secrets as Korak and Meriem search for Suzanne—or will it spell their doom? Includes the bonus novella "Pellucidar: Dawn of the Deathslayer" by Christopher Paul Carey. ## FANTOONS

THE EXTRAORDINARY LIFE OF HENRY MANCINI GN

(W) David Calcano

(A) Fantoons

The Pink Panther, Moon River, and Peter Gunn... songs that defined a generation. Henry Mancini wrote some of the most hummed melodies of all time, winning him four Oscars and twenty Grammy Awards. Now for the first time, we are telling his fully authorized story in a graphic novel. From the humble beginnings of his father's flute lessons, to standing ovations at the prestigious Hollywood Bowl, this graphic novel by Fantoons beautifully illustrates every step in the journey of Henry Mancini's pivotal and industry-shaping career. Each page features vividly painted illustrations, with color that encapsulates each of the many emotions—high and low—of Henry Mancini's bold, musical adventure. (STL309848) (C: 0-1-0)

INVESTIGATORS VOLUME 8: CLASS ACTION GN

(W/A) John Patrick Green

(CA) John Green

The InvestiGators are back...to school?! Mango and Brash have always been a class act but can these alligator detectives convincingly go undercover as average middle-school students? Why has the super-spy organization S.U.I.T. been assigned protection detail for a small-town team mascot? Is it a coincidence that the school happens to be the same one that Agent Mango (just barely) graduated from? Is Mango's family in danger? Will Brash pass home economics? Is Friday still pizza day? There might just be a pop quiz later! (STL328590) (C: 0-1-0)

WEIRDO GN

(W) Tony Weaver Jr

(A) Jes Wibowo, Cin Wibowo

Eleven-year-old Tony Weaver, Jr. loves comic books, anime, and video games, and idolizes the heroic, larger-than-life characters he finds there. But his classmates all think he's a weirdo. Ostracized and bullied by his peers, Tony struggles with the hurt and depression of not being accepted and hopes that if he can conform to other people's expectations, those feelings might dissipate. But, try as he might, he is unsuccessful and spirals deeper into the dark thoughts and feelings that plague him. Cut off from his peers and the media he loves, and unaware of how to broach the subject of his feelings and seek help, Tony attempts suicide. In the wake of his unsuccessful attempt, Tony's family surrounds him with love and support, and his life begins to change for the better. Tony starts seeing a therapist to talk through his feelings and enrolls in a new school whose aim is to foster creativity. As Tony navigates a new school, new friendships, and first crushes, he finds himself growing into the hero he's always aspired to be. Tony ultimately learns to love himself and discovers that the unique qualities that set him apart are, in fact, superpowers. (STL328580) (C: 0-1-0)

FIRST SECOND BOOKS

BORN IN THE USA: THE STORY OF IMMIGRATION AND BELONGING GN

(W) Lawrence Goldstone

(A/CA) James Otis Smith

This installment of the World Citizen Comics series tracks the history of immigration to the United States, highlighting the twists and turns in the nearly three-hundred year debate over who gets to be an American. The words carved into the Statue of Liberty make a simple promise—America will provide a home for anyone in search of a better life. However, the true story of immigration to America is full of complications and caveats. Born in the USA tracks the history of immigration to the United States, revealing how economic interests and political winds have sculpted Americans' thoughts about who belongs in the USA. Lawrence Goldstone and James Otis Smith reveal the dissonance between the American dream and the American reality. (STL328565) (C: 0-1-0)

BALD GN

(W) Tereza Cechova
(A) Stepanka Jislova
Even the most imperfect journey can lead to beauty. Tereza never thought she would go bald before her boyfriend did. She couldn't imagine being unable to sweep her hair up in a ponytail or to style it in other ways. But when she lost all her hair in just a couple of months due to alopecia, her perspective on relationships, work—and, above all, herself—radically changed. Navigating the particular trauma of female hair loss, Tereza comes to terms with her new reality with humor and self-reflection in this prize-winning graphic memoir featuring eye-catching art by Stepanka Jislova. ### SHRINK: STORY OF A FAT GIRL GN

(W/A) Rachel M Thomas
Derided by her high-school peers for being overweight, Rachel finally found a sense of purpose and belonging in a promising career as an EMT—that is, until her body got in the way. Shrink is a work of graphic medicine that depicts the emotional and physical realities of inhabiting a large body in a world that is constantly warning about the medical and social dangers of being "too fat." This smart and candid book challenges the idea that weight loss is the only path for a fat person and encourages the reader to question the prevailing cultural and medical discourse about fat bodies. Thomas lays bare society's obsession with size and advocates for each of us to push back on body weight bias and determine what's right for our own health and well-being, both physical and mental. THE 39 CLUES VOLUME 2: ONE FALSE NOTE GN

(W) Gordon Korman, Hannah Templer
(A) Hannah Templer
Amy and Dan made the choice of a lifetime when they gave up a million dollars in favor of a Clue and joined a competition unlike any the world has ever seen. After barely escaping Paris with their lives, now they're in Vienna to discover the truth about their famous ancestor, Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, and the long-buried secrets connected to his equally talented but overlooked sister, Nannerl. But with their enemies closing in, Amy and Dan must decide how much they're willing to risk to find the clues, and who they're willing to betray in the process... (STL328551) (C: 0-1-0)

O/A THE 39 CLUES VOLUME 1: MAZE OF BONES GN

(W) Rick Riordan (A) Ethan Young
The graphic novel adaptation of the mega-bestseller that launched a global phenomenon! Minutes before she died Grace Cahill changed her will, leaving her descendants an impossible decision: "You have a choice—one million dollars or a clue." Grace is the last matriarch of the Cahills, the world's most powerful family. Everyone from Marie Curie to Harry Houdini is related to the Cahills, yet the source of the family power is lost. 39 Clues hidden around the world will reveal the family's secret, but no one has been able to assemble them. Now the clues race is on, and young Amy and Dan must decide what's important: hunting clues or uncovering what really happened to their parents. (STL260238)

(A) Ellen T Crenshaw
They're lean, they're mean, they're the pride of Stonybrook. Who are they? They're Kristy's Krushers! When Kristy sees how much her little brothers and sister want to play on a softball team, she starts a ragtag team of her own. Maybe Kristy's Krushers aren't world champions (how could they be, with Jackie Rodowsky, walking disaster, playing for them?), but nobody beats them when it comes to team spirit. Now Bart's Bashers have challenged the Krushers to a game. It's bad enough that the Bashers truly are lean and mean—but what's worse is that Kristy has a crush on the Bashers' coach! (STL328559) (C: 0-1-1)

DEAR DAD: GROWING UP WITH A PARENT IN PRISON GN

(W) Jay Jay Patton, Kiara Valdez
(A) Markia Jenai

As far back as nine-year-old Jay Jay Patton can remember, her dad, Antoine has been in prison. Growing up in Buffalo, New York with her mom and younger brother, she's only been to visit him twice. Instead, the two have sent each other numerous letters—Jay Jay's letters can take weeks or months to reach her dad, and some never even get delivered. What's it going to be like having Dad home? This powerful coming-of-age graphic novel memoir tells Jay Jay Patton's life of growing up with a dad in—and out of—prison. How she and her dad were able to develop a powerful father/daughter bond and create Photo Patch—a life-changing application that connects children to incarcerated parents. Because no child should have to grow up unable to engage with their parents. (STL328562) (C: 0-1-0)

(W/A) Victoria Grace Elliott
A wonderfully fun and unique reimagining of The Phantom of the Opera as a teen rom-com set in high school! Erika knows that people find her weird and off-putting. Instead of making friends, she finds solace in talking to herself and obsessing over handsome actors and pop stars. When she starts attending a new school, her loneliness takes on a life of its own and she develops a new obsession: the cutest boy in her theater class, Christian. For some reason, Christian is kind to her and even agrees to star in the play that she wrote for him, and Erika starts to find a creative voice that might lead to new friendship and romance. But the more time Erika spends with Christian, the more she wonders what he sees in a creep like her. Can Erika somehow write her way into the center of her own heartfelt love story? Or does Christian have an ending of his own in mind? (STL328553) (C: 0-1-0)

OUR STORIES CARRIED US HERE: TINKERING TOWARDS MY SPARK HC

(W) Thai Chang (A) Khou Vue
The fourth volume in the unique Our Stories Carried Us Here series of bilingual graphic memoirs written and illustrated for young readers, ages 8-13, Tinkering Towards My Spark follows Thai Chang from the mountains of Thailand to classrooms in Minnesota. Thai explored environments and tinkered with gadgets until he found his spark inspiring and educating others. Thai grew up in a refugee camp in Thailand and knew at a young age that he wanted science and technology to be an important part of his life. After moving to the US at age 13, Thai worked hard to learn English and build a career in STEM with the help of those around him. Thai's story is beautifully told in English and Hmong, illustrated by Hmong-American illustrator Khou Vue. (STL328429) (C: 0-1-0)

Time. Space. Existence. The end of all things. The beginning of something new. The reconciliation of decisions. This is what awaits our fatal remains of civilization at the last black hole at the end of time. The Neo-human, Harmony, Multitude, Remnant, Echo, and the Time Traveler all are summoned by chance, fate, or technology to discuss the trials and tribulations of the stardust ancestors they arose from. But what is there to do, when all of time is ending, when the last particles of the universe are dissipating and moving on from the realm? That is a question for our unlikely conclave to decide. What type of legacy will they, can they, leave a dying universe? (STL321410) (C: 0-1-1) HC, 160pgs, FC .....$22.99

I SPIT ON YOUR CELLULOID: THE HISTORY OF WOMEN DIRECTING HORROR MOVIES SC

(W) Heidi Honeycutt

Heidi Honeycutt defines the political and cultural forces that shape the way modern horror movies are made by women. The women's rights and civil rights movements, new distribution technology, digital cameras, the destruction of the classic studio system, and the abandonment of the Hays code have significantly impacted women directors and their movies. So, too, social media, modern ideas of gender and racial equality, LGBTQ acceptance, and a new generation of provocative, daring films that take shocking risks in the genre. This is a first-of-its-kind celebration, study, and "a book that needed to be written" (says cult filmmaker Stephanie Rothman). You will never look at horror movies the same way again! (STL328682) (C: 0-1-0) NOTE: This item may be available through other retail outlets before shipping to comic book specialty shops.

Thirteen-year-old Chase's life and identity should be simple. He's the goalie for his hockey team, the Eagles. He's a friend to Kevin and Jade. He's Kookum's youngest grandchild. He's a boy. He should like girls. But it's not that simple. Chase doesn't like girls the way that the other boys do. It's scary being so different from his peers. Scariest still is the feeling that his teammates can tell who he is—and that they hate him for it. If he pretends hard enough, maybe he can hide the truth, but real strength and change can't come from a place of shame. Chase's dreams are troubled by visions of a bear spirit, and the more he tries to hide, the more everything falls apart. With the help of an Elder, and a Two-Spirit mentor, can Chase find the strength to be proud of who he is? This graphic novel explores toxic masculinity through the experiences of an Indigenous teen. ### STEVE, A PRETTY EXCEPTIONAL HORSE GN

(W/A) Kelly Collier
 The first installment in a hilarious early graphic novel series, based on Kelly Collier's popular picture book introducing the one and only (just ask him!) Steve the Horse. Steve the Horse wants to be exceptional... you know, like a peacock! His friend Bob tries to reassure him that he's special, but Bob can't seem to think of anything exceptional about him. Steve is discouraged... until he finds a shiny gold horn in the forest. Obviously, somebody left this exceptional horn for him to find! He ties it to his head and prances off to show his friends. Who's exceptional now? Steve, that's who! Only, as Steve's friends make clear, dressing up and showing off are not the answer. Adapted from Kelly Collier's much-loved picture book A Horse Named Steve, this early graphic novel will delight slightly older readers with its silly, laugh-out-loud story about self-esteem and what really makes someone special. Iode (short for Iodine) lives on an idyllic island where humans and fish coexist on land. He has been waiting patiently for a letter that seems to be perpetually delayed, so he takes a trip into town to inquire at the post office. Along the way he meets a spirited hitchhiker who has been entrusted to deliver a mysterious package by the enigmatic underworld syndicate, "The Octopus." Their two missions intertwine leading not only to unexpected adventure, but deep personal realizations for both of them... The world is not what it seems, and the simple surreality of their little town may not be everything it seems to be.

BE THAT WAY GN

(W/A) Hope Larson
It's January 1, 1996, and high school junior Christine wants more than anything to be that cool girl everyone notices, like her gorgeous best friend, Landry. She usually hates New Year's resolutions, but this year she vows to be that shiny kind of girl—and record it all in her diary through prose, illustration, and comics. When Landry drops her, Christine is surprised to discover just how much she doesn't miss her and her drama. But a misguided kiss with film-obsessed Paul, her only other close friend, also causes a rift, and she finds herself facing a long, lonely summer. Eisner-award winning author and illustrator, Hope Larson, has created a powerful coming-of-age story set in a time before the Internet that explores themes of betrayal, first love, self-expression, and the power of art.

(W/A/CA) Tom Neely

Everyone's favorite aging punk odd couple lights up the page once more in the first all-new Henry & Glenn floppy comic in a decade. Inside you'll find "I Don't Want to be Buried," the first chapter of a brand new story written and drawn by Tom Neely. Our squabbling, loving heroes have adopted a new cat they named Iggy. Iggy and Henry become best friends, but Glenn has a lot of trouble connecting with the new kitty. Also, Henry gets cast in a new movie directed by Jon Twaters; so Glenn gets left home alone with Iggy... and it does not go well! You'll also find a retrospective of Henry & Glenn lore and collectibles, and a comic short True Tale of Henry & Glenn featuring the time Tom sat on a plane next to the drummer for

Samhain. Plus a cameo from Henry and Glenn's neighbors Daryl and John and some spicy new pin-ups, including a back cover pin-up by Justin Hall! (STL330308)

THE INCREDIBLE STORY OF COOKING HC

(W) Benoist Simmat (A) Stephane Douay

For the first time, a graphic novel tells the story of humanity through the evolution of cuisine. As soon as humans mastered fire, they invented cooking. Did you know that Sapiens invented steam cooking and freezing? That the Mesopotamians created soups, bread, beer, ovens? That gastronomy and tableware have been symbols of political power? These great discoveries changed the world, but also the way we eat. From America, the conquistadors brought spices, peppers, potatoes... Portuguese missionaries brought the frying technique to distant samurai who made the first tempuras. These are the beginnings of globalization. In the 19th century with the industrial revolution, "capitalist" cuisine emerged: It was the beginning of the food industry. In the 21st century, the organic and buy local movements are shown as a reaction against the harmful effects of this culinary and gastronomic standardization. To finish in style, find twenty-two recipes for dishes mentioned throughout our story that you can make at home! (STL328476) (C: 0-1-0)

In the borderlands between imagination and reality, horror and fantasy, master storyteller Cullen Bunn (The Sixth Gun, Harrow County) and visionary artist Christopher Mitten (Hellboy & the B.P.R.D.) begin one family's labyrinthine descent through a perilous forest where the local folklore is anything but a myth . . .

Bestselling author Andrew Kier found the perfect place to finish his latest dark-fantasy novel—an idyllic, remote cabin on the edge of a lush Swedish forest. His young daughters, Sommer and Winter, gleefully explore . . . until they happen upon a strange clearing of ancient statues: goblins, dwarves, elves, and a warrior queen mysteriously missing her swordhand and weapon. When something sinister follows the girls home and viciously snatches their parents in the night, the sisters' only hope may be that ancient relic, lost in the forest underbrush, waiting for a new champion to take it up . . .

CHARLES BURNS: FINAL CUT HC

(W/A) Charles Burns As a child, Brian and his friend Jimmy would make sci-fi films in their yards, convincing their friends to star as victims of grisly murders, smearing lipstick on the "bodies" to simulate blood. Now a talented artist and aspiring filmmaker, Brian, along with Jimmy, Jimmy's friend Tina, and Laurie—his reluctant muse—sets off to a remote cabin in the woods with an old 8 millimeter camera to make a true sci-fi horror movie, an homage to Brian's favorite movie: Invasion of the Body Snatchers. But as Brian's affections for Laurie go seemingly unreciprocated, Brian writes and draws himself into a fantasy where she is the girl of his dreams, his damsel in distress, and his savior wrapped into one. Rife with references to classic sci-fi and horror movies and filled with panels of stunning depictions of nature, film and the surreal, Burns blurs the line between Brian's dreams and reality, imagination and perception. A master of the form at his finest, Final Cut is an astonishing look at what it means to truly express oneself through art. (STL329386) (C: 0-1-2)

BETWEEN TWO SOUNDS:
ARVO PÄRT'S JOURNEY
TO HIS MUSICAL
LANGUAGE HC

(W) Joonas Sildre, Adam Cullen
(A) Aile Tooming
Between Two Sounds follows the life of world-famous composer Arvo Pärt from his birth in Estonia in 1935 through 1980, when the Soviets forced him to emigrate because of the nonconformist and religious nature of his music. Arvo Pärt stormed Soviet-occupied Estonia's music scene in the 1960s as a brash young man pushing the limits of avant-garde modernism. Then he fell silent, no longer able to express what he felt through the musical language he had inherited. When he reemerged a decade later, he had found, in that silence between sounds, a new musical language inspired by ancient sacred music, the basis of his distinctive tinnabuli technique. Joonas Sildre paints an atmospheric portrait of a restless artist who does not shy away from confronting state control or his own internal contradictions. (STL328695) (C: 0-1-1)

Daredevil is a fictional superhero created by Jack Binder. As a child, Bart Hill was witness to his parents' brutal murder. The murderer also branded Bart with a hot iron, leaving a boomerang-shaped scar on the left side of his chest. This traumatic experience left the boy mute. He trained his entire life in the art of the boomerang, eventually becoming a master boomerang marksman. He then donned a costume and took to the streets as the vigilante crime-fighter known as Daredevil. Lev Gleason launched Daredevil's own comic with Daredevil Battles Hitler #1 (July 1941), in which Daredevil and other Silver Streak heroes fought the German chancellor. It was written and partially drawn by Charles Biro, who in his 16-year run would make the character one of the most acclaimed of the Golden Age. Johnny Dynamite, created by Pete Morisi, was a hard-boiled private detective, known as "The Wild Man from Chicago." Good friends with the D.A. but readily accepted by the underworld, he smoked cigarettes constantly, cursed frequently and had a bad habit of getting shot and beaten by his enemies. But always gave as good as he got; he was an experienced and persistent detective taking his cases very personally and killed many of his early foes, claiming they were reaching for a weapon. Myra Benz, who had shot him in the eye, was brazenly killed without any true justification beyond his own sense of justice. (W) John Wagner & Various
(A) Colin MacNeil & Various
(CA) Cliff Robinson, Mark Harrison
Incredible SF action from the Eisner-nominated UK anthology! Everything wraps up in Progs 2398-2399 as Judge Dredd (John Wagner & Colin MacNeil), Silver (Mike Carroll & Joe Currie), Herne & Shuck (David Barnett & Lee Milmore) and Rogue Trooper (Geoffrey D. Wessel & Paul Marshall) all come to their explosive conclusions. Then Prog 2400 is an unmissable bumper crossover spectacular as the Norts from the Rogue Trooper universe wage war on the 2000 AD multiverse and only Dredd, Rogue, Bad Company, Jaegir, The V.C.s and a few others can lead the resistance in 'Nordland Rising'! Includes stories by Ken Niemand, John McCrea, Peter Milligan, Ian Edgington, Nick Percival, Dan Abnett, Gordon Rennie, Simon Coleby, Nick Dyer and Cam Smith. Prog 2401 is a jumping-on issue with the start of new series: Rogue Trooper returns in "When a G.I. Dies" by Garth Ennis & Patrick Goddard; there's a cult conspiracy in turn of the century New York in "Nightmare New York" by Kek-W, John Burns & David Roach; Judge Dredd apprehends a wanted criminal in "Silence" by Rob Williams, Arthur Wyatt & Jake Lynch; and Cyd is back on her travels in "The Out" Book 4 by Dan Abnett & Mark Harrison. ## THE DE PALMA DECADE HC

(W) Laurent Bouzereau

Among a crop of fresh filmmakers revolutionizing Hollywood in the '70s, Brian De Palma charted a cinematic path unlike any of his peers. At times he was unfairly dismissed as a Hitchcock copycat; other times he was misunderstood for his peculiar mix of sexuality, humor, music, and violence. But, over the course of ten years, he created a new cinematic language. Acclaimed filmmaker Laurent Bouzereau explores the seven films that came to define the De Palma decade—Sisters, Phantom of the Paradise, Obsession, Carrie, The Fury, Dressed to Kill, and Blow Out. Combining film analysis, detailed production histories, and new interviews with De Palma himself, his casts, and collaborators, Bouzereau presents the definitive record on this unrivaled period of cinematic creativity and the emergence of an auteur who would continue to influence filmmaking in the decades that followed. THEY SHOT THE PIANO PLAYER GN
 (W) Fernando Trueba, Javier Mariscal
 (A) Javier Mariscal
 An investigation and celebration of the origins of the world-renowned Latino musical samba-jazz movement Bossa Nova, They Shot The Piano Player captures a fleeting time bursting with creative freedom at a turning-point in Latin American history in the '60s and '70s, before the continent was riven by totalitarian regimes. Francisco Tenório Cerqueira Júnior, born in Rio de Janeiro, was one of the most recognized musicians of the samba-jazz movement. At 3 a.m. on March 18, 1976, after giving a concert at the Gran Rex in Buenos Aires, the 34-year-old pianist went out to get some cigarettes. He was never seen again. What happened that night? This is the question that moves the narrator of this documentary graphic novel to initiate an investigation into the fateful events that led to the death of a musician destined to change the course of Brazilian music forever. ### WHEN TO PICK A POMEGRANATE GN

(W/A/CA) Yasmeen Abedifard
In this collection of contemplative and cathartic short comics, the pomegranate Anar and the woman Guli exist as reflections of each other, repellent to one another and yet inexorably drawn together once more. As they evolve through each story, proceeding through the stages of the plant life cycle, they take on new roles: muse and artist, gardener and seed, lover and fruit. The iterations reveal new revelations, exploring the themes of shame, grief, destiny, and survival at each turn. Abedifard's comic form evokes Persianate storytelling and draws on stylistic elements found in illuminated manuscripts, building an experience as rich and complex as the taste of pomegranate on one's tongue. O/A CHROMATIC FANTASY GN

(W/A) HA

A Faustian bargain kicks off in this gorgeously drawn graphic novel reminiscent of stained glass and illuminated manuscripts, telling the story of queer transmasculine romance, daring adventure, and (literally) fighting your demons. Jules is a trans man trapped in his life as a nun. The devil that the convent guards against offers him a deal to escape: an illicit tryst and lifelong possession. Jules takes the deal, and begins his new life as a criminal who's impervious to harm. He soon meets Casper, another trans man and a poetic thief, and together they steal, lie, and cheat their way through bewildering adventures, and develop feelings for each other along the way. But as Jules and Casper's relationship deepens, so does the devil's jealous grasp... (STL284861)

DISNEY HIGH: THE UNTOLD STORY OF THE RISE AND FALL OF THE DISNEY CHANNEL'S TWEEN EMPIRE HC

(W) Ashley Spencer
 For many kids growing up in the 2000s, there was no cultural touchstone more powerful than Disney Channel. At its peak, Disney Channel was the most-watched cable channel in primetime, generating billions of dollars from its related movies, albums, merchandise, and more. Today, it might best be known for introducing the world to talents like Hilary Duff, Raven-Symoné, Zac Efron, Miley Cyrus, Selena Gomez, the Jonas Brothers, Demi Lovato, and Zendaya. In the new millennium, it churned out original content and triple-threat stars whose careers were almost entirely controlled by the corporation. Suddenly, everyone wanted a piece of the pie—and there were constant clashes between the studio, network, labels, and creatives as Disney Channel became a pressure cooker of perfection for its stars.

From private feuds and on-set disasters to fanfare that swept the nation and the realities of child stardom, culture journalist Ashley Spencer offers the first unauthorized look at the heyday of TV's House of Mouse. (STL328585) (C: 0-1-0)

TALES FOR A HALLOWEEN NIGHT: BROOKLYN STORIES TP
(W) Tieri, Frank (A/CA) Cat Staggs
Comic legends Frank Tieri and Cat Staggs have teamed up to offer tales of monsters, both human and supernatural, creeping in the streets of Brooklyn. As it turns out, these big city beasts, whether ghosts, vampires, wendigos or simply human beings bent on revenge, have been responsible for events as widespread as the '77 NY blackout, the Coney Island fire of 1911, and even the Revolutionary War's Battle of Brooklyn. The "truth" behind all these events is not what you've been told. Thankfully, Tieri is here to set things straight. This collection includes all six of the duo's stories from John Carpenter's Tales for a Halloween Night volumes 4 through 10, plus a seventh story, woven between the others, to tie these events and characters together. Cat Staggs illustrated the entire collection. You'll never look at New York the same way again. (STL320505) (C: 0-1-2)

THE STAN LEE STORY HC

(W) Roy Thomas, Stan Lee (A) Various
Stan "the Man" Lee stands the test of time as the most legendary name in comic book history. Stanley Lieber began working at Timely Comics in 1940 at the age of 17 and found himself at the helm of the bullpen as its top editor just two years later. But it wasn't until 1961 that he ignited a revolution known as the "Marvel Age of Comics." With a legendary stable of art partners including Jack Kirby, Steve Ditko, John Romita, and Jim Steranko, Lee unleashed a dizzying cascade of seminal comicbook creations—the Fantastic Four, Hulk, Spider-Man, Thor, Iron Man, the X-Men, and the Avengers to name a few. After moving to Hollywood in 1980, he did it again, developing TV and film projects that laid the groundwork for the "Marvel movie." His tale is told by his successor at Marvel, renowned comics writer, editor, and historian Roy Thomas, who brings "you are there" insights and wide-eyed clarity to key moments of Lee's journey to pop culture immortality. Featuring hundreds of treasures of comic book art, intimate photographs sourced straight from his family archives, a foreword written by Lee himself, a novel-length essay and new epilogue by Thomas, and an appendix with complete reprints of Stan's comics from throughout the decades, this is a titanic tribute worthy of the Man. FIGHTING TO BELONG! VOLUME 2: ASIAN AMERICANS, NATIVE HAWAIIANS, AND PACIFIC ISLANDERS, 1900-1970 GN

(W) Amy Chu, Alexander Chang (A) Louie Chin
For many Americans of Asian American, Native Hawaiian, or Pacific Islander descent who grew up in the United States, there continues to be a startling lack of opportunity to learn about our own history in our country. Even today, over 70% of Americans have little knowledge about AANHPI history or confuse it with Asian history. In Fighting to Belong! Volume Two: Asian American, Native Hawaiian, and Pacific Islander History, 1900-1970, our middle school protagonists Padmini, Sammy, Joe, and Tiana and their guide, Kenji, embark on an amazing journey through time to witness key events in AANHPI history. They witness the arrival of the "Manilamen" to the United States in the eighteenth century and fly through significant moments in the next 150 years. Fighting to Belong! helps new audiences young and old, AANHPI and non-AANHPI, understand how these stories are truly interwoven within the fabric of America. HERO-A-GO-GO SC

Welcome to the Camp Age, when spies liked their wars cold and their women warm, good guys beat bad guys with a pun and a punch, and Batman shook a mean cape. Hero-A-Go-Go celebrates the camp craze of the Swinging Sixties, when just about everyone — the teens of Riverdale, an ant and a squirrel, even the President of the United States — was a super-hero or a secret agent. Michael Eury takes you through that coolest cultural phenomenon with this lively collection of nostalgic essays, histories, and theme song lyrics of classic 1960s characters like Captain Action, Herbie the Fat Fury, Captain Nice, Atom Ant, Scooter, ACG's Nemesis, Dell's super-Frankenstein and Dracula, the "split!" Captain Marvel, and others! (STL031673)

O/A AMERICAN TV COMIC BOOKS (1940S-1980S): FROM THE SMALL SCREEN TO THE PRINTED PAGE SC

American TV Comic Books (1940s-1980s) takes you from the small screen to the printed page, offering a fascinating and detailed year-by-year history of over 300 television shows and over 2000 comic book adaptations across five decades. Peter Bosch has documented this amazing area of comics history, tracking down the well-known series (Star Trek, The Munsters) and the lesser-known shows (Captain Gallant, Pinky Lee) to present the finest look ever taken at this unique genre of comic books. Included are hundreds of full-color covers and images, plus profiles of the artists who drew TV comics. (STL201631)

MONDAY: A COMIC APOCRYPHA GN

(W/A) Andy Hartzell
God created the world in seven days. It's the eighth day, the beginning of creation's second work week. Something new is coalescing in the garden, and its former manager, the Snake, is concerned. Will this next-gen creature bring the order crashing down? It's up to Eden's first couple to stage an intervention with their Maker before His latest handiwork renders them obsolete. But messing with the creative process is a dangerous business. Monday is a metaphysical slapstick suspense comic, a fable for our unstable age. FILM BY DESIGN: THE ART
OF THE MOVIE POSTER SC

(E) Gary D. Rhodes, Robert Singer
Movie posters, regardless of their country of origin, have become indelibly linked with the films they represent, often assuming a status as visual encapsulations of films within collective memory. Long after their initial role in promotion is complete, these posters endure as iconic images, etched into film history and cultural consciousness. Film by Design: The Art of the Movie Poster is a groundbreaking and comprehensive exploration of the international and Hollywood movie poster as a dynamic artistic and cultural formation. Drawing inspiration from such prominent genres as horror, science fiction, and noir, the twelve essays in this collection provide insightful analyses of the movie poster as a vital component of the cinematic landscape from the silent era to the contemporary period. Each chapter, whether focusing on controversies, Cubism, or Cuba, is accessible to scholars, students, and fans alike. Film by Design reveals the movie poster to be an ever-evolving medium, firmly grounded in both theory and practice, while serving as an essential and enduring element within the realm of film art. ONE TOUGH DAME:
THE LIFE AND CAREER OF DIANA RIGG HC

(W) Herbie J Pilato
Deemed a Dame Commander of the Order of the British Empire in 1994, Diana Rigg (1938–2020) initially found fame as super sleuth Mrs. Emma Peel in the 1960s BBC/ABC-TV espionage series, The Avengers. A classically trained and multi-award-winning thespian, Rigg is known for her diverse body of work — from her big-screen debut in 1969 as Countess Teresa di Vincenzo, wife of James Bond in On Her Majesty's Secret Service, to her Tony Award-winning, leading role in Medea on Broadway, culminating with her Emmy-nominated portrayal as Lady Olenna Tyrell on the heralded small-screen gem, Game of Thrones. One Tough Dame: The Life and Career of Diana Rigg offers a sweeping portrait of the revered performer's life and career. Herbie J. Pilato includes insights from rare, archived interviews, encompassing both video dialogues conducted by the University of Kent and Oxford Union. The meticulously curated archival material is further complemented by equally rare photos, and retrospections drawn from diverse media sources and hitherto unpublished accounts from the people who knew Rigg best, affording readers an unprecedented, all-encompassing glimpse into her private world. SHOCK CITY GN

(W/A) Aaron Alexovich
When shy, anxious Milo rings the doorbell of the forbidden Shock City castle on a dare, he gets more than he bargained for when peppy young monster Sunny answers the door and labels herself Milo's new BFF. But when Milo returns to tell Sunny he—and the rest of the town's residents—are moving out of the crumbling Shock City, his monster pal refuses to accept it. She soon convinces Milo to join her on a romp around the city to reverse the damages done, and persuade him and everyone else, to stay. But when Sunny learns that her grandfather, the great Darkness Von Shock, was not the revered benefactor she believed him to be, and is actually the cause of everything bad happening in Shock City, Milo confronts his biggest fears to help Sunny save the town and reverse her family's reputation. (STL329231) (C: 0-1-1)

A CHILD IN PALESTINE GN

(W/A) Naji Al-Ali
Naji al-Ali grew up in the Palestinian refugee camp of Ain al-Hilweh in the south Lebanese city of Sidon, where his gift for drawing was discovered by the Palestinian poet Ghassan Kanafani in the late 1950s. Early the following decade he left for Kuwait, embarking on a thirty-year career that would see his cartoons published daily in newspapers from Cairo to Beirut, London to Paris. Through his most celebrated creation, the witness-child Handala, al-Ali criticized the brutality of Israeli occupation, the venality and corruption of the regimes in the region, and the suffering of the Palestinian people, earning him many powerful enemies and the soubriquet "the Palestinian Malcolm X." For the first time in book form, A Child in Palestine presents the work of one of the Arab world's greatest cartoonists, revered throughout the region for his outspokenness, honesty and humanity. LUMINOUS BEINGS GN

(W) David Arnold (A) Jose Pimienta
Ty and Burger have known each other since before they could walk. But this shared history is nothing compared to their plans for the future: step one, make a killer documentary about humanity's recent brush with extinction from the "squirrel-pocalypse"; step two, apply to film school together; step three, achieve legendary status as the next great filmmaking duo. But Ty has a secret that will ultimately shake the foundations of their friendship and force them both to wonder if growing up means letting go of the people they once were. Set over the course of a single day, Luminous Beings explores the many facets of friendship and love, the heavy burden of a well-kept secret, the boundless tenacity of the human spirit, and, yes, the furriest of all zombified mammals. But don't worry, it's not the end of the world. Just the end of the squirrel. (STL329228) (C: 0-1-1)
